Report

A Workshop on

“Career Counseling for the Final Year Students”

Date: 22 April 2025

Time: 10:00 AM onwards

Venue: Departmental Room, Department of Philosophy,
Morigaon College (Autonomous)

Resource Person

Dr. Chandan Sarma

Assistant Co-ordination, IQAC, Morigaon College

Attendant of Students and Teacher: The workshop was attended by more than 67 participants, including final-year undergraduate students of the department and all faculty members of the Department of Philosophy.

Aims and Objectives of the Programme:

The Career Counseling Workshop was organized with the aim of creating awareness among students about the various career opportunities available after graduation. It sought to guide students in identifying their interests, strengths, and academic potential, while familiarizing them with options for higher education, competitive examinations, and professional courses. The programme also aimed to motivate students towards skill development, systematic career planning, and informed decision-making, thereby bridging the gap between academic learning and practical career requirements.

Summary of the Lecture

Dr. Chandan Sarma delivered an insightful and interactive lecture focusing on career planning, employability skills, and future academic prospects. He emphasized the importance of early career planning and self-assessment in today's competitive world.

The resource person discussed various career pathways such as higher studies, teaching, civil services, research, corporate sectors, entrepreneurship, and skill-based professions. He also highlighted the relevance of interdisciplinary learning and continuous skill upgradation.

Special emphasis was laid on preparing for competitive examinations like UPSC, APSC, NET, SLET, and other government and private sector opportunities. Dr. Sarma encouraged students to cultivate critical thinking, communication skills, and adaptability. The session concluded with an interactive question-answer segment, where students actively participated and sought guidance regarding career choices and preparation strategies.

Findings

Students gained greater clarity about diverse career options beyond traditional choices, which broadened their perspective regarding future possibilities. Many students expressed an increased interest in pursuing higher education and preparing for competitive examinations. The interaction during the session also revealed a strong need for regular career guidance and mentoring programmes to support students' aspirations. Moreover, students became more aware of the importance of developing relevant skills alongside academic excellence to enhance their employability and overall career readiness.

Outcomes of the Programme

The workshop successfully enhanced students' awareness of career planning and the wide range of opportunities available to them after graduation. It helped students feel more motivated and confident in making informed career decisions based on their interests, abilities, and future goals. The programme also strengthened meaningful teacher-student interaction on career-related issues, creating a supportive academic environment for guidance and mentoring. Overall, the workshop contributed positively to the holistic academic and professional development of the students by encouraging clarity, preparedness, and a proactive approach towards their future careers.

Conclusion

The Career Counseling Workshop was highly informative and beneficial for the students. The presence of an experienced resource person and active participation from both students and faculty made the programme successful. The department plans to organize

At the end, the vote of thanks was given by HOD Dr. Nilamani Phukan and the event had a successful completion.
