Date: 8th April, 2025

Venue: Seminar Hall, Department of Zoology.

A Popular Talk was organized by the Department of Zoology, Morigaon College on 8th April 2025 in the Seminar Hall. Dr. Suraj Chetri, Assistant Professor, Department of Zoology, Down Town University, was present as the resource person and delivered a talk on the topic "Dominance of Insects: Introduction to Entomology". The session started at 11:00 A.M. with an introduction to the fascinating world of insects, emphasizing their diversity, adaptability, and ecological significance. Suraj Chetri highlighted the dominance of insects in the animal kingdom, explaining their vast diversity, structural adaptations, and evolutionary success. He also discussed the role of insects in ecosystems, including pollination, nutrient cycling, and as bio-indicators of environmental health. Furthermore, the talk covered the economic importance of insects, addressing both their beneficial aspects (such as honey production, silk industry, and biological control agents) and harmful impacts (as pests and disease vectors).

The invited talk was highly informative and engaging, providing a comprehensive introduction to entomology and sparking curiosity among students about the study of insects. The event was well-received by the audience, who appreciated the opportunity to interact with an expert in the field. A total of 60 students from UG and PG attended the talk.
