REPORT

One Week Workshop jointly with AASU (8th – 16th July 2025)

Organized by:

Department of Philosophy, Morigaon College in collaboration with AASU

Venue:

Morigaon College

Introduction

The Department of Philosophy, Morigaon College, in association with AASU, conducted a Binamuliya Praxikshan Karmaxala (Free Training Workshop) on Drama, Satria Dance, and Modern Dance from 8th to 16th July 2025. The workshop aimed to promote cultural activities and provide practical training to students and community members.

Experts

The workshop featured experienced trainers in their respective fields:

- Drama: Simanta Kr. Baruah, Kuori Sarma
- Satria Dance: Raktim Mahanta, Syamalika Medhi
- Modern Dance: Nikita Mahanta

Inauguration

The workshop was inaugurated by Dr. Lilakanta Borthakur, Principal of Morigaon College. The welcome address was delivered by Dr. Nilamani Phukan, Head of the Department of Philosophy. Teachers and experts were felicitated with Gamusa, symbolizing respect and appreciation.

Participants

The event was attended by students, teachers, and parents, creating a lively and encouraging environment throughout the duration of the workshop.

Objectives

The main objectives of the workshop were:

- To promote performing arts and culture.
- To offer practical training in drama and dance forms.
- To develop creativity, discipline, and teamwork.
- To connect students with experts in performing arts.

About the Workshop

Over nine days, participants engaged in hands-on training in acting, expressions, posture, and rhythm. The program covered both traditional and modern forms of artistic expression, encouraging students to build confidence and explore their talents in a structured learning environment.

Summary

'The Binamuliya Praxikshan Karmaxala' was a successful and inspiring event that brought together students, teachers, and parents in a spirit of learning and creativity. Over nine days, participants actively engaged in practical training sessions in drama, Satria dance, and modern dance under the guidance of expert trainers. The sessions helped students improve their acting skills, posture, rhythm, and overall confidence while encouraging self-expression and teamwork.

The final day featured group performances, where participants showcased what they had learned, receiving appreciation from the audience. The workshop created a supportive and interactive environment, allowing students to explore their talents and cultural heritage.

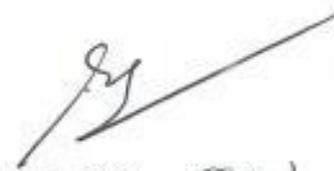

The event concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Dr. Nilamani Phukan, HoD, Department of Philosophy, Morigaon College, who expressed gratitude to all participants, experts, teachers, and parents for their cooperation and involvement. The workshop successfully promoted cultural awareness, artistic skills, and community bonding among the participants.

Outcome

The workshop achieved its objectives by:

- Enhancing awareness and appreciation of performing arts among students
- Improving confidence, communication, and teamwork
- Offering expert guidance that helped participants refine their skills
- Encouraging cultural bonding and community participation

The event was widely appreciated and played an important role in nurturing talent, promoting cultural, and strengthening relationships within the community.
