Report

The Department of Economics & History, Morigaon College in collaboration with SDF, Golaghat organized a National Seminar on Feminine Virtue and Agency: Women in Sankaradeva's Writings Compared to Global Religion Text on 29th November 2024. The seminar was an insightful event dedicated completely in exploring the rich cultural, philosophical, and social contributions of Srimanta Sankaradeva, whose work has left an indelible mark on Assamese society and beyond. The seminar started with the inaugural session moderated by Dr. Nilamani Phukan, Associate Professor of Philosophy, Morigaon College. First, a Bargeet was performed by the students of the college. Dr. Lila Kanta Barthakur, Principal, Morigaon College lightened the lamp and welcomed the gathering to the college. The seminar was formally inaugurated by Dr. Bishnu Prasad Upadhya, Principal, G.K.B. College. In the panel discussion, panelist Dr Aradhana P. Goswami highlighted the contribution of Sankaradeva with respect to women empowerment. In the two technical sessions altogether 22 papers were presented on different topics.
